

Social Media Promo Kit for Libraries

Knowledge Unlatched (KU) appreciates the support of libraries around the world in its endeavour to create a sustainable route to Open Access for specialist scholarly books.

To help promote KU and show your support, please use social media, talk to other librarians, researchers, publishers, students, friends... Some inspiration:

"[Library Name] is a proud supporter of @KUnlatched, making Open Access books available to anyone, anywhere in the world! <http://bit.ly/2bx0ICW>"
