Knowledge Unlatched

PRESS RELEASE

Knowledge Unlatched books now discoverable within PaperHive Search

Berlin, 2 of July 2018. Knowledge Unlatched (KU) is now implemented in PaperHive's database. Readers can now use PaperHive's powerful search engine to search across all Knowledge Unlatched titles or browse within specific disciplines. The 900+ titles and 16 journals from a large variety of subjects incl. economics, political science, music and history can now be found as specific content groups within the platform. All Knowledge Unlatched books can be read, discussed, organized, and annotated on PaperHive.

To support Open Access publishing initiatives, PaperHive will be running a three month introductory offer for publishers with Open Access publishing programmes. To learn more about the special offer, register for PaperHive's webinar by filling out this short form.

About Knowledge Unlatched: Knowledge Unlatched (KU) offers free access to scholarly content for every reader across the world. Our online platform provides libraries worldwide with a central place to support Open Access models from leading publishing houses and new OA initiatives.

About PaperHive: PaperHive is a scholarly collaboration network directly connected to publisher websites. It enables researchers and students to manage, discuss, and annotate academic literature in collaboration with their colleagues and the wider research community. PaperHive also facilitates interactive teaching, post-publication peer review, and publishers' marketing campaigns. For more information, please visit paperhive.org
