

Three leading publishers, Iberoamericana Vervuert, Peter Lang, and De Gruyter, have joined together to form an Open Access collection of French and Spanish Language titles in the fields of Literary Studies, Linguistics, and Cultural Studies. The collection will include monographs, collected volumes, and dissertations, selected by an Editorial Board of subject experts.

The Cooperative Model

Together the 3 publishers will publish 24 titles in the fields of French and Spanish Linguistics, Literary - and Cultural Studies as Open Access per year. This includes 12 brand new frontlist titles which are financed by the participating libraries in the cooperative model. The publishers also show their commitment by converting 12 backlist titles (also per year) that were published between 2012 and 2017 at no additional cost to libraries.

The collection will be curated by a prestigious Editorial Board of 6 subject experts, 2 members of which will be appointed by each publisher. The Editorial Board will cover a range of different institutions, as well as a variety of research fields in French and Spanish within the areas of Literary Studies, Linguistics, and Cultural Studies.

The Board includes names like: Prof. Dr. Susanne Hartwig, Cultural Studies, Spanish (University of Passau)

Benefits for Libraries

Supporting institutions help to making frontlist content in French and Spanish Linguistics and Literary Studies available Open Access. The fees that are saved for eBook licences can be re-channelled to fund Open Access.

The end result will be 72 titles in French or Spanish openly available to everyone.
